

Popular Stars Appearing on Vaudeville Programs

Belle Baker Introduces New Song Hits at Palace; Sophie Tucker at the Riverside Theater.

MISS BELLE BAKER, singing new songs and wearing new frocks, will be the headliner at the Palace this week. Other stellar acts will be the Cansins, Aunt Jemima, Robert Emmett Keane and Claire week and others will be Billy Sharp, Harry Burns and company, James Thornton and Roy Price and Mary Werner.

HARVEST SALE AND DANCE.

St. John's College Auxiliary is arranging plans for a harvest sale and country dance at the Pough, on the afternoons and evenings of October 27 and 28. The head of the committee is Mrs. George C. Owsley. The following will assist: Miss Owens, Miss Anna Ostrander, Mrs. Frank McCormick, Miss Margaret Quick, Mrs. Frederick Miller, Mrs. Margaret Archer, Mrs. Sallie McRee Ministerer, Miss Katherine Hagerly, Miss Anna O'Brien, Miss Josephine Ancelin, Miss Anastasia Fisher, Mrs. Thomas Roman, Miss Kathryn Brady, Mrs. Lester Whitman.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW YORK'S

HENRY MILLER
RUTH CHATTERTON
in
"La Tendresse"

"Of Ruth Chatterton's efforts only words of admiration may be spoken and there is only one actor on the American stage qualified to essay so stupendous an impersonation. Henry Miller accomplished this great illusion in 'La Tendresse'." —Percy Hammond in The Tribune.

EMPIRE B'WAY
40TH ST.
MAT. WED. & SAT. 2:20.
EVENINGS AT 8:20.
Seats Selling 4 Weeks in Advance

BELASCO
West 44th St.
Eva, 8:30; Mats.,
Thurs. & Sat. 2:30
DAVID BELASCO presents

Lenore Ulric
as KIKI

LYCEUM
West 45th St.
Eva, 8:30 Mats.,
Th. & Sat. 2:30
THE IRRESISTIBLE HIT!
DAVID BELASCO presents

Frances Starr
in "Shore Leave"

A Seagull Comedy of American Life by Hubert Osborne

GLOBE-POP MATS. WED. & SAT.
ALL NEW GEORGE WHITE'S
SCANDALS 1922

PAUL WHITEMAN AND HIS PAULY ROLL ORCHESTRA
RARE COLLECTION OF NEW BEAUTIES

SAM H. HARRIS
ATTRACTIOMS

MUSIC BOX THEATRE West 45th Street | Box Office opens

OPENING THURSDAY EVE. OCT. 19 at 8:15 sharp

SAM H. HARRIS presents

IRVING BERLIN'S

NEW "MUSIC BOX REVUE"

Staged by HASSARD SHORT

CHARLOTTE GREENWOOD CLARK & McCULLOUGH HAL SHERMAN STOTTES MELIA ALLEN ROSEMARY IRVING ROSEMARY AND THE MUSIC BOX GIRLS.

EVERY CHILD FROM SIXTY IS GOING TO SEE

"IT'S A BOY"

WILLIAM ANTHONY MCGUIRE'S COMEDY

SAM.H.HARRIS THEATRE, W. 42nd ST. Eves. 8:15 MATS. WED. & SAT.

CORT THEATRE W. 48th ST. MATS. WED. & SAT.

ACE OF COMEDIES YOU CAN'T GO WRONG IT'S ACES-ALLACES

WALLACE EDDINGER MARY NASH

CAPTAIN APPLEJACK

Staged by the author and Sam Forrest Eve Sun.

EQUITY 48TH STREET THEATRE Eves. 8:30. Mats. Tues. & Sat. 2:30. ENTIRE SECOND BALCONY TUESDAY MATS. 25c.

JANE COWL 'MALVALOCA'

EQUITY PLAYERS From the Spanish of SERAFÍN & JOAQUÍN ALVAREZ QUINTERO

JANE COWL LILLIAN ALBERTSON ANGELA MCMAHON MARGARET FARRELL GEORGE RICHMAN LAUREL BROWNELL STAGED BY AUGUSTIN DUNCAN

JANE Cowl alight with a hundred graces! —Alexander Woolcott, Times.

"One of the Delights of the Current Stage Season." —Christian Science Monitor.

EARL CARROLL THEATRE, 7th AV. 50th St. Tel. Circle 6000. POP. MATS. THURSDAY & SATURDAY, 2:30

The GINGHAM GIRL

"Best Musical Show Town Has Seen in Many Years." —Alan Dale, Mantle Mail.

"Most Entertaining Music Play This Year." —Burns Mantle, Mail.

Art Alliance of America Plans Exhibition Soon

The Art Alliance of America and the New York Society of Craftsmen are sending out notices to all of the leading craftsmen in the United States, inviting them to participate in a joint exhibition of craftwork to be held from November 20 to December 20 at the Art Center, 65-67 East Fifty-sixth street. Articles for this exhibition must be entered on Monday and Tuesday, November 13 and 14. A jury composed of master craftsmen will pass on all work and the entry fee will be charged to non-members. The exhibition will be hung in the Art Alliance Gallery at the Art Center.

Crafts represented will include basketry, bookbinding, cards, china, embroidery, enameling, decoration, ivories, glass, illumination, modeling, ivory, metal work, polychrome and gesso, pottery, photography, printing, pewter, silversmithing, textiles, toys and wood carvings.

A ample notice is being given so as to make possible the assembling of the finest examples of craftsmanship available.

The Smithsonian Gallery of Arts, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.

The Art Center, Washington, D. C., has invited the association to send forty paintings, twenty miniatures and twenty pieces of sculpture, to be shown there from November 3 to December 3. Another group of sixty small paintings, fifteen miniatures and twelve bronze by members of the association is to be exhibited in the program of the American Federation of Arts for the season of 1922-23. Exhibitions will be held in many cities throughout the United States during the season. The out of town exhibitions have been arranged by the interstate jury of the association of which Miss M. Elizabeth Price is chairman.